- 24 You shall reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period up to 180 days. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility and shall participate in programs offered by the facility at the direction of the supervising officer.

CAUSE

The probation officer believes that the action requested above is necessary for the following reasons:

Mr. Moran is currently being supervised in the Western District of Washington. On June 25, 2010, the U.S. Probation Office in the Eastern District of Washington received a report of alleged violations committed by the defendant in the Western District of Washington. Specifically, it is alleged the defendant consumed alcohol and moved without notifying the supervising probation officer. A detailed account of events is reflected in the attached violation report from the Western District of Washington U.S. Probation Office.

Following receipt of this information, contact was made with the Probation Office in the Western District of Washington. Mr. Moran was approached and questioned if he would be in agreement to enter into a Residential Reentry Center to address his alleged violations. It was reported to undersigned officer that Mr. Moran did not agree to being placed into a Residential Reentry Center, as he did not think the alleged violations were of a serious nature. Furthermore it was noted that Mr. Moran would like to return to the Eastern District of Washington to address the alleged violations.

The undersigned officer is presenting this information to Your Honor for consideration of the issuance of a summons requiring Mr. Moran to appear before the Court to show cause why no official action should be taken.
